Membership Agreement Terms

The Membership Agreement Terms and the Membership Application constitute the agreement between you as the Primary Member (and your spouse if a Secondary Membership is purchased), and the USCCA, Inc. ("USCCA") (collectively the "Membership Agreement").

Membership Application and Payment

An applicant who completes a Membership Application, meets all of the requirements for membership, and pays the membership dues, shall be enrolled as a member of the USCCA, and such applicant shall be considered the Primary Member. A Primary Member who elects to have their spouse added as a member of the USCCA must complete the "spouse" portion of the Membership Application. If such spouse meets the requirements for membership, and the additional dues are paid to add the spouse as a member, such spouse shall be enrolled as a member of the USCCA, and such spouse shall be considered the Secondary Member. For purposes of the Membership Agreement, "spouse" means the legal husband, wife, or domestic partner of the Primary Member, as those terms are defined and recognized in the state of Primary Member's domicile. All payments shall be made to Delta Defense, LLC ("Delta").

Membership Eligibility

Individuals must be 18 years of age to join the USCCA.

Residents of New Jersey, New York and Washington are ineligible for USCCA Membership.

Representations and Warranties of Primary Member

Primary Member represents and warrants to the USCCA that Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) is not a Specially Designated National or Blocked Person as defined in the Office of Foreign Assets Control regulations.

Benefits

Primary Member shall receive all of the benefits of USCCA Membership as set forth on both the USCCA and Delta Defense LLC websites as of the date that the Membership Application is received and accepted. Primary Member and Secondary Member shall jointly receive one (1) magazine, and one (1) of each of the other product(s) offered with the membership level selected on the date the Membership Application is received and accepted.

The USCCA is an association of like-minded and responsible firearm-owners, that exists for the purpose of educating and training its members related to firearms, lawful self-defense, responsibility, safety, and preparedness. Thus, the principal benefits of USCCA membership are education and training. In recognition of the risks associated with its undertaking to educate and train, and in consideration of its responsibility and the responsibility of its members, the USCCA has obtained an insurance policy providing it with self-defense liability insurance coverage.

Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) are additional insureds on the Self-Defense Liability Policy and any Endorsements thereto issued to the USCCA (the "Policy") by Universal Fire and Casualty Insurance Company. Click here to view the Policy.

A copy of the Policy is available to Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) through the Member's USCCA dashboard, or can be obtained by contacting Delta at 1000 Freedom Way, West Bend, WI 53095, or by requesting a copy of the Policy from the USCCA at (877) 677-1919.

Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) agree and acknowledge that the USCCA Membership benefits other than the Policy are of value, benefit, importance and interest to Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable), and that the value, benefit, importance and interest of and in the Membership benefits other than the Policy are a significant inducement for Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) to become a member in the USCCA.

Term of Membership - Automatic Renewal

The term of a Primary Member membership (and Secondary Member membership if applicable) is one (1) year from the date the Membership Application and the Membership Application is accepted, provided that all of the regular payments as set forth in the Membership Application are made.

The Primary Member's (and Secondary Member's, if applicable) membership shall automatically renew at the expiration of the one (1) year term for successive one (1) year terms, provided that Primary Member makes all of the regular payments as set forth in the Membership Application.

By submitting the Membership Application, the Primary Member hereby authorizes Delta to debit Primary Member's account (if using a debit card or ACH) or charge Primary Member's credit card (if using a credit card) the amount set forth on the Membership Application. Because the Primary Member membership (and Secondary Member membership, if applicable) will automatically renew, Primary Member hereby authorizes Delta to debit Primary Member's account (if using a debit card or ACH) or charge Primary Member's credit card (if using a credit card) the amount due for membership at the benefit level set forth in the Membership Application one (1) year from the date the Membership Application is submitted and accepted, and each successive year thereafter.

ter in the amount then charged by Delta for the level of benefits set forth in the Membership Application. Primary Member can cancel the Primary Member membership at any time by calling Delta at (877) 677-1919. If a Primary Member cancels the membership, the Secondary Member's membership shall also be canceled. Secondary Member can cancel the Secondary Member's membership at any time by calling Delta at (877) 677-1919. If a Secondary Member cancels the Secondary Member's membership, the Primary Member membership shall not be canceled, unless directed by the Primary Member.

Because the annual Primary Member membership (and Secondary Member membership, if applicable) cost might vary from year-to-year, and the amount that Delta will debit from the Primary Member's account (if using a debit card or ACH) or charge to Primary Member's credit card (if using a credit card) might increase from year-to-year, if the amount a Primary Member will pay to renew the Primary Member membership (and Secondary Member membership, if applicable) increases at any time, Delta shall send Primary Member a written notification thirty (30) days prior to such renewal and increase which shall include notification of any membership price increase (Primary or Secondary) and the increase in the debit to Primary Member's account or the charge to Primary Member's credit card for the annual automatic renewal. If a Primary Member does not wish to renew the Primary Member membership, Primary Member can cancel at any time as set forth above. If a Primary Member cancels the Primary Member's membership, the Secondary Member membership shall also be canceled. If Delta attempts to debit Primary Member's account (if using a debit card) or charge Primary Member's credit card (if using a credit card), and the debit or charge is rejected, Delta shall notify Primary Member, and if payment is not made immediately, Delta shall treat such event as a cancellation, and shall cancel Primary Member's (and Secondary Member's, if applicable) membership.

It is the Members' sole responsibility to notify Delta of any change in address, phone number, email, or payment method information, as well as to keep the Members' emergency contact information up to date. You may do so by calling (877) 677-1919.

If Primary Member (or Secondary Member, if applicable) renew their membership, the terms and conditions in the Membership Agreement shall also renew and shall govern Primary Member's (and Secondary Member's, if applicable) membership in the USCCA.

Cancellation

Primary Member can cancel membership at any time. If a Primary Member cancels their membership, the Secondary Member's membership shall also be canceled. In the event of cancellation, Delta will grant the Primary Member a refund proportional to the unutilized time of the current membership term. If a Primary Member cancels membership during the first year of membership because the Primary Member is dissatisfied with the USCCA or the membership benefits and the Primary Member requests a full refund pursuant to the "USCCA Bulletproof Guarantee," Delta will refund the total membership dues that have been paid for that first year of membership. Once a Primary Member uses the 'USCCA Bulletproof Guarantee,' it's not available for future cancellations, even after rejoining. If a Primary Member cancels membership, the Primary Member is also canceling the insurance coverage provided under the Policy, including the Secondary Member membership and insurance coverage.

Primary Member's membership (and Secondary Member's membership, if applicable) will be canceled if Primary Member fails to pay the membership dues pursuant to the Membership Application and any renewals. Failure to pay pursuant to the Membership Application (and any renewals) shall result in the cancellation and termination of the Primary Member membership and Secondary Member membership and the cancellation and termination of the Policy for both Primary Member and Secondary Member. Immediately upon cancellation and termination of the Primary Member's membership (and Secondary Member's membership, if applicable), the insurance coverage under the Policy shall also terminate without any further notice.

Member Termination

The USCCA has the right to terminate the membership of any Primary Member or Secondary Member at any time if the USCCA determines in its sole and absolute discretion that such Primary Member or Secondary Member's actions or behavior is contrary to the interests of the USCCA, and thereafter all of the rights of the Primary Member and/or Secondary Member shall cease. Such termination may be retroactive in the case of fraud, bad faith, or criminal or malicious action or intent. Any such decisions regarding termination shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the USCCA. In the event of termination, Delta will refund the terminated Primary Member's (or Secondary Member's, if applicable) payments pursuant to the USCCA's "bulletproof guaranty". Each representation or warranty of Primary Member shall be true and correct as of the date of Application, the initiation of Membership in the USCCA, and throughout the duration of Membership in the USCCA. In the event such Primary Member representation or warranty was untrue at the time it was made, or becomes untrue at any time during Primary Member's membership as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the USCCA, Primary Member's (and Secondary Member's, if applicable) membership shall be terminated as of 1) the date of signup in the event the representation or warranty was untrue at the time it was made or 2) that date on which the representation or warranty became untrue.

Amendments or Changes to Membership Agreement

USCCA reserves the right to change the Membership Agreement terms at any time, without notice to Primary Member or Secondary Member. USCCA shall post the most recent version of the Membership Agreement terms on its website, and the Membership Agreement terms on USCCA's website shall constitute the current, binding, and enforceable Membership Agreement. Primary Member and Secondary Member agree to be bound by the terms of the then existing Membership Agreement posted on USCCA's website.

Disputes, Class Action Waiver, Contract Formation, and Governing Law

Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) agree that any and all disputes between Primary Member (or Secondary Member, if applicable) and the USCCA or Delta shall be governed by the laws of the State of South Carolina, and jurisdiction and venue for any such disputes shall be in the State of South Carolina Circuit Court of Charleston County, South Carolina.

Where permitted under applicable law, Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) agree that any claims against the USCCA or Delta may only be brought in the Primary Member's (and Secondary Member's, if applicable) individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative action.

Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) agree that: (1) this Membership Agreement is formed, entered into, and agreed to in the state of South Carolina; and (2) all of the terms and conditions in the Membership Agreement are made and accepted in the State of South Carolina. Primary Member (and Secondary Member, if applicable) understands and agrees that this covenant and agreement as to the state of contract formation, governing law, jurisdiction, and venue is an important part of Primary Member's membership (and Secondary Member's membership, if applicable) and agrees to these provisions in consideration of the member benefits received as a member of the USCCA.
